

Dear customer,

thank you for buying our product, which we do with passion and enthusiasm.

The Heart is designed for city bikes. Its function is intentionally hidden into the interior. Even though it looks very light and airy, it can really carry a lot thanks to its shape, which will release the weight equally on the wall. However, functionality remains unchanged. The hanging of the bike is dealt with in a very sophisticated way - the bike slides itself into its ideal position and you don't have to worry about hitting an exact point.
